

Summary

With close to 30 years of effectively implementing programs in Latin America and the Caribbean in partnership with local faith-based actors, OAA offers the knowledge, expertise, and credibility needed to make a difference in the lives of vulnerable people in the region.

OAA's purpose is to provide aid, alleviate suffering, and improve the dignity and quality of life of individuals, families, and communities, in a way that supports positive change towards sustainable development and respect for fundamental freedoms. We also promote citizen participation in developing community programs.

Core Competencies

As a small NGO that specializes in humanitarian relief, human rights advocacy, and grassroots development in the Americas, we believe that we have the best cost-effective value to offer.

Past Performance

Our team is made up of passionate and knowledgeable individuals committed to offering the highest level of quality and customer service.

We understand the significance of complying with deadlines, following instructions, and staying within the budget. We are also willing to adjust our strategies and strategies to meet your particular requirements.

We believe our partnership will contribute to your success and may help you meet your quota of subcontracting with so-called "underutilized and faith-based agencies."

Focus Area: Freedom of Religion or Belief

One of OAA's key focus areas has been advancing freedom of religion or belief (FoRB) as enshrined in Article 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights: "Everyone shall have the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion. This right shall include freedom to have or to adopt a religion or belief of his choice, and freedom, either individually or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in worship, observance, practice and teaching." OAA has been engaged in and is committed to advancing this fundamental freedom in Cuba, Nicaragua, and Venezuela.

Key Distinctives

Our key distinctive and our strength is the trust we have earned over almost 30 years of experience. We have proven methodologies and tools to provide capacity building and assistance to vulnerable people and communities through faith-based local partners. We offer:

- Strong relationships with local partners who directly serve beneficiaries
- Deep experience working with faith-based partners in challenging contexts
- Proven track record of empowering grassroots actors and advocating for fundamental freedoms
- Diverse, bilingual staff representing various countries in the region, with decades of experience implementing U.S. government, NGO, and privately funded projects

Customers & Countries

OAA has experience working as a prime under USAID and DoS-DRL and as a subcontractor with IRI, NDI, PADF, and Freedom House, among others. Our countries of expertise include: Cuba, El Salvador, Dominican Republic, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Jamaica, Mexico, Nicaragua, and Venezuela.
